

Will the event have catering?

Last Updated Sunday, 26 February 2023 11:01

All Heroquest events are partially catered. You can be assured of:

- buffet breakfast, toast cereal hot & cold drinks.
- a hot evening meal (there will be a vegetarian option).

If you have extra dietary requirements you should let Heroquest know when you're making your booking. We always endeavour to accommodate all-comers.

There is no breakfast on the last morning. You will need to sort out your own lunches - please note that there may not be fridge space available.

You should always bring your own snacks and drink (including any alcohol) for the entire event.

Players food is already incorporated into their event payment.

If monsters wish to have food,

£30 for a Special Event, and £45 for a HeroQuest. If you are only attending a portion of the event, and still wish catering, please email markst@blueyonder.co.uk for the cost

Some feedback...

Although I'm probably what you could call a 'fussy vegan', I've been delighted with the catering.
